Re: Renteria, Justin BoydOctober 16, 2023*Page 2

On October 2, 2023, Mr. Renteria self-surrendered to the United States Marshals (USMS) in Yakima. After Mr. Renteria was processed by the USMS, the offender provided a drug test. Prior to providing a sample, Mr. Renteria informed this officer he consumed marijuana prior to self-surrendering to calm his nerves. The sample he provided returned presumptive positive for methamphetamine and marijuana. Initially, Mr. Renteria denied consuming methamphetamine; however, as this officer was preparing the sample to send to the laboratory for testing, Mr. Renteria admitted to snorting methamphetamine on October 1, 2023.

- 5 Mandatory Condition #2: You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance, including marijuana, which remains illegal under federal law.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Renteria is alleged to have violated his conditions of supervised release by being in possession of marijuana on October 13, 2023.

On October 13, 2023, U.S. Probation conducted a search of Mr. Renteria's residence in Malaga, Washington. Officers located five small bags of marijuana and four small mason jars of marijuana in the offender's bedroom. Mr. Renteria claimed the marijuana belonged to his wife. It should be noted that Mr. Renteria's personal items were in this bedroom, including the charger for his Global Positioning System (GPS) equipment.

Additionally, a small bag of marijuana was located in the camping trailer outside the residence. Mr. Renteria previously informed this officer he had been sleeping in the trailer because he and his wife were not getting along.

- 6 Standard Condition #10: You must not own, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that is was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Renteria is alleged to have violated his conditions of supervised release by being in possession of a large knife on October 13, 2023.

On October 13, 2023, U.S. Probation conducted a search of Mr. Renteria's vehicle, a white Dodge pick up truck. U.S. Probation Officer Mendoza located a large knife on the floor behind the front seat of the offender's truck. The knife was approximately 9 inches long and was not in a sheath.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceeding with the violations previously reported to the Court. Mr. Renteria is scheduled to appear before the Court on October 18, 2023, for a supervised release revocation hearing.
